

SIGN2INCLUSION NEWSLETTER

The aim of this newsletter is to enhance our networking, collaboration efforts, and cooperative initiatives. Published quarterly, each issue will highlight promotional and networking events with all partners, updates on the SIGN2Inclusion action, as well as news and activities that partners may find interesting.

Announcements

Our e-Guidebook has focused on the existing gaps of the literature; the impact of technology on SL users; the educational systems per partner country and many more!

It is now available through the website.

PART 2

Gaps in the Literature Review

GLORIA ALL ABATE
CARLO DE L'ÉPÉE

Nato a Versailles (Francia) nel 1712, morto a Parigi nel 1789, inventore dell'alfabeto dei Sordi-muti, il quale sacrificò tutta la sua fortuna per l'educazione de' Sordi-muti.

SEGNI DEI SORDI-MUTI

Se si desidera imparare i segni dei sordi-muti in poche ore la strada è facilissima, si esprime mediante movimenti delle mani e dita tutto ciò che si vuol dire.

News and Updates

- Teachers, professionals and figures from the school world were interviewed by our partners UNITO and IST to develop a multimodal lexicon in Sign Language dedicated to environmental concepts and emerging technologies.

News and Updates

- This lexicon will be a unique tool to make STEM subjects accessible and exciting for deaf high school students.
- Each new sign is designed to help DHH students build solid knowledge and actively participate in scientific innovations!

News and Updates

- Our team is working hard on the Lexicon to be used and also identify the needs of DHH learners.
